

B2 Frozen Foods Tote

With Separate Two Ply Laminated Tube

End use

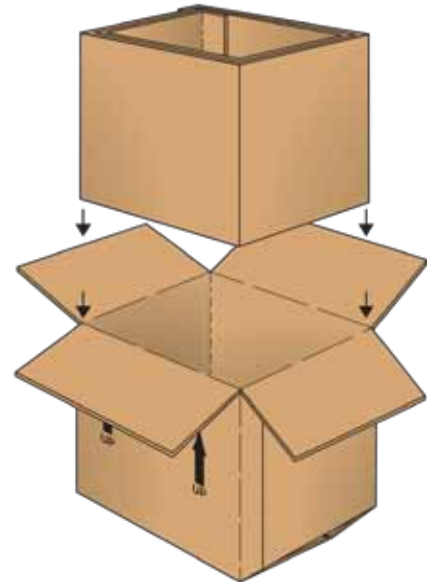

Longview's B2 Frozen Food Tote offers superior strength at a reduced cost.

A two-ply laminated box with a separate inner tube, the B2 lets customers keep products in cold storage for months prior to shipping to end users. The separate liner allows customers to reuse the higher cost inner and replace the less costly outer.

It's a money-saver, timesaver, and sanity-saver.

Features

- Inner made from two fully laminated AC doublewall tubes, with a separate L flute outer
- Triple manufacture joints to ensure superior strength
- Sesame tape wraps around the perimeter to reduce tear and bulge
- Water-resistant adhesive ensures superior performance
- Top flaps overlap by 4 inches eliminating the need for a cap
- Optional 2 color printing is available
